

Want to learn more about the COVID-19 vaccine or need help getting it?

Disability Rights Texas is now assisting Texans with disabilities who need information about the vaccine or are having trouble getting it through our new Vaccine Access Program.

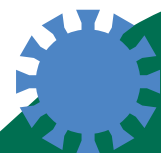

- Are you having trouble signing up for the vaccine on your computer – or you don't use computers?
- Do you need a ride to the place giving the shots?
- Is it hard to leave your home and you need the vaccine brought to you?
- Do you want to learn more about the vaccine before you get it?

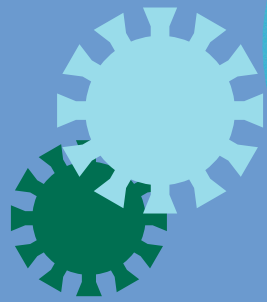

If this is you, our Vaccine Access Navigators can help connect you to what you need to get the vaccine.

Call 1-800-880-8401 Monday through Friday from 9am - 4pm or email vaccine@DRTx.org

The Vaccine Access Program at DRTx is part of the Texas Partners for Inclusive Access, a new statewide partnership of organizations that are committed to making the vaccine and other services accessible in our state. Stay tuned for an announcement in the near future about this new collaboration.

¿Quiere aprender más sobre la vacuna COVID-19 o necesita ayuda para conseguirla?

Disability Rights Texas ahora está ayudando a tejanos con discapacidades que necesitan información sobre la vacuna o tienen problemas obteniéndola a través de nuestro nuevo Programa de Acceso a Vacunas. (Vaccine Access Program)

- ¿Tiene problemas para inscribirse para la vacuna en su computadora, o no usa computadoras?
- ¿Necesita que lo/la lleven al lugar donde se administran las inyecciones?
- ¿Es difícil salir de su casa y necesita la vacuna traída a usted?
- ¿Desea obtener más información sobre la vacuna antes de recibirla?

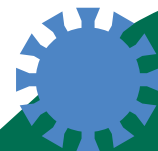

Si usted es esta persona, nuestros Navegadores de Acceso a Vacunas pueden ayudarle a conectarse a lo que necesita para recibir la vacuna.

Llame a 1-800-880-8401 de lunes a viernes

desde las 9am - 4pm o por correo

electrónico a vacuna@DRTx.org

El Programa de Acceso a Vacunas en DRTx es parte de Texas Partners for Inclusive Access, una nueva asociación estatal de organizaciones que están comprometidas a hacer que la vacuna y otros servicios sean accesibles en nuestro estado. Estén atentos para un anuncio en el futuro cercano sobre esta nueva colaboración.

Having problems with Texas Medicaid or your Medicaid services? Disability Rights Texas can help!

- Persons covered by Texas Medicaid have a right to receive certain medically necessary healthcare services.
- If Texas Medicaid or the Medicaid Managed Care Health Plan reduces or denies medically necessary healthcare services, they must issue a notice and provide an opportunity to appeal.
- If you need help with a Medicaid appeal or have questions about your rights, please contact the Healthcare/Community Integration Team at Disability Rights Texas, a non-profit legal organization offering free advocacy.

For help, call our statewide intake line at 1-800-252-9108, go to intake.DRTx.org 24/7 or visit www.DRTx.org for self-advocacy resources.
